Thelma Hulbert Gallery (THG) would like to invite you to the Private View of Experiencing The Landscape: Art on the East Devon Way

Saturday 8 September 3pm - 5pm

The exhibition continues until Saturday 27 October when it culminates with our community party in partnership with Museums At Night and The Big Draw

The exhibition will be opened by Chris Woodruff, AONB Partnership Manager at 3.15pm.

Experiencing the Landscape is the culmination of a year-long collaborative project between THG and East Devon AONB, using diverse art forms to engage people with the landscape in new ways.

The project celebrates 25 years of the East Devon Way, the 40 mile footpath running from Exmouth to Lyme Regis. The exhibition showcases new work commissioned by local artists Angus Rutherford, Gabby Hoad, Megan Calver and Jenny Mellings as well as a reflection of the 80 nature-based creative workshops undertaken with schools and the public between May and October. Artist Sam White's camera obscura used at some of the events along the East Devon Way will also be installed in the THG garden so you will be able to see how it works and have your portrait taken!
