CELEBRATING 25 YEARS
OF THE EAST DEVON WAY

ART ON THE EAST DEVON WAY

A project to celebrate 25 years of the East Devon Way

Thelma Hulbert Gallery (THG) have partnered with East Devon
AONB to help people of all ages engage with the landscape in new and creative ways.

Join us this summer for lots of nature-based art opportunities, creative activities and workshops along the East Devon Way and at THG. There will be an exhibition showcasing the work created throughout East Devon from 8 Sept - 27 Oct at THG and a celebratory community party on Sat 27 October.

EVERYTHING IS ART AND EVERYONE CAN BE AN

ART ON THE EAST DEVON WAY ACTIVITIES

MAY

1. JOURNALS AND JOURNEYS

Thurs 17 May, 10am – 2pm
Booking: Y
Cost: £3
Where: Aylesbeare - Sidbury

Join writers Janis Lane & Phil Whitehead for a 7-mile writing ramble from Aylesbeare Common to Sidbury, guided by RSPB Warden Toby Taylor.

Exactly 25 years to the day since the creation of the East Devon Way, enjoy a fresh approach to the countryside and a different kind of workshop: Phil and Jan will help you express your personal and creative responses to the landscape in a writing journal. The day will end at the Red Lion Inn in Sidbury and we'll catch a bus back to the starting point. Age 14+.

2. INVESTIGATIVE DRAWING WORKSHOP

Fri 25 May, 10am – 4pm
Booking: Y
Cost: £30
Where: THG and Fire Beacon Hill

Work with artist Angus Rutherford to explore ways of using inks and tools to create a collaborative panoramic drawing on the East Devon Way. We'll work both at Fire Beacon Hill and at THG.

The day will explore participants' unique personalities in their drawing and mark-making to create a large collective landscape artwork that will be exhibited at THG (as a photomontage). Participants will be able to keep their own artworks created. Age 14+.

3. LYME IN DARK GLASS

Sat 26 May, 11 – 4pm
Booking: Y
Cost: £8
Where: The Lyme Regis Museum

Work with artist Jenny Mellings to paint using natural pigments and try the 18th Century Claude Glass as a way of capturing the landscape. Participants will paint outside along the coast and in the museum. All ages and abilities welcome. Age 8+.

JUNE

4. CAPTURING THE SUN

Sat 2 June, 10am – 1pm or 1.30 – 4.30pm
Booking: Y
Cost: £3 per camera
Where: Fire Beacon Hill

Install your own 'solargraph' pinhole camera on Fire Beacon Hill with photographer Justin Quinell where they will remain for 3 months. Meet again on 8 Sept at THG to scan your images! All ages welcome.

5. READ (TO) THE TREES

Sat 16 June, 1 – 3pm
Booking: Y
Cost: £3
Where: Fire Beacon Hill

Get to know the local trees by reading aloud to them. Observe how they respond, and write or draw your findings. Artist Gabby Hoad will provide texts you can choose from, or you can bring your own. Forestry Commission Ranger Rob Greenhalgh will also be on hand to chat about East Devon's woodlands. All ages welcome.

6. SHARING SPACE WITH NIGHTJARS

Sat 23 June, 8pm – late
Booking: Y
Cost: £4
Where: Fire Beacon Hill

Learn the art of Field Sensing, a slow-walking practice that focuses attention and enhances awareness of place, leading into an experience of the mystical territorial call of nightjars and hopefully a glimpse of this mythical nocturnal bird. Event facilitated by Anne-Marie Culhane (artist) & Tony Whitehead (artist & RSPB Officer). Age 12+

JULY

7. INVESTIGATIVE DRAWING WORKSHOP

Fri 27 July, 10am – 4pm
Booking: Y
Cost: £30
Where: THG and Musbury Hill Fort

Work with artist Angus Rutherford to explore ways of using inks and tools to create a collaborative panoramic drawing on the East Devon Way. We'll work both at Musbury Hill Fort and at THG. The day will be spent exploring participants' unique personalities in their drawing and mark-making to create a large collective landscape artwork that will be exhibited at THG (as a photomontage).

Participants will be able to keep their own artworks created. Age 14+.

8. ART ON THE EAST DEVON WAY

Sun 29 July, 11 – 4pm
Booking: N
Cost: free
Where: follow parking arrangements for Heath Day at Woodbury Common

Drop in and make your own monoprint or cyanotype using found materials as well as take a camera obscura family portrait! All ages welcome.

AUGUST

9. TRACING THE LIGHT

Sat 4 Aug, 11am – 4pm
Booking: N
Cost: Free
Where: Estuary View Car Park (oppos Woodbury Castle)

Draw the landscape by climbing into a camera obscura to trace what you see. Make a collaborative canvas and also create your own upside-down sketches of the heathland by entering our camera obscura to draw the landscape. All ages welcome.

10. FAMILY PIN-HOLE CAMERA WORKSHOP

Tues 7 Aug, 10am – 1pm or 1.30 – 4.30pm
Booking: Y
Cost: £3
Where: Sidbury

Make your own pinhole photographic record of historic Sidbury. After the workshop, your camera will then be adapted to take a 6 month exposure camera back at your own home. All ages welcome.

11. TURN (THE) LEAVES

Wed 8 Aug, 10am – 1pm or 1.30 – 4.30pm
Booking: Y
Cost: £3
Where: Woodbury Castle

Join artists Gabby Hoad and Megan Calver as they bring together people and trees for simultaneous shared reading and response. Working from a simple set of instructions, you'll create a new communal work of art made by reading aloud. Texts will be provided. Event will be recorded. All ages welcome.

12. WALKING FOR HEALTH: HARPFORD WOODS

Wed 15 Aug
Booking: Y Lottie Edwards 01395 255083
